ANU CENTRE FOR EUROPEAN STUDIES CALL FOR EUROPA VISITING FELLOWSHIP APPLICATIONS

1 September 2016 - 31 March 2017

Closing date 19 August 2016

The ANU Centre for European Studies (ANUCES) is a joint initiative of the Australian National University (ANU) and the European Union. Located at the heart of diplomatic and political life in Canberra, it underscores the university-wide commitment to European studies.

The ANUCES is an initiative involving six ANU Colleges (Arts and Social Sciences, Law, Business and Economics, Asia and the Pacific and Medicine, Biology & Environment, Engineering & Computer Science) co-funded by the ANU and the European Union.

ANUCES promotes interdisciplinary dialogue, generates collaborative research projects, and contributes to the development of public sector policy and debate. The Centre supports postdoctoral research, and visiting fellows working in the field of EU and comparative studies concerning Australia and Europe.

This new Europa Visiting Fellowship Program at the ANUCES is part of the Centre's mission to promote research, education and dialogue between Europe and Australia.

The Centre will host early career and distinguished researchers from Australian or overseas academic institutions to promote research excellence in EU studies.
